فرض الفصل الأول

فرض في مادة: اللغة الإنجليزية — المدة: ساعة

Social networks have become part of teenagers' daily life. They use them to chat with friends, share photos and follow the news. Some pupils also join study groups where they exchange lessons and exercises. However, these networks can be dangerous. Many teenagers spend more time online than with their families, and some sleep less because they stay connected late at night. Experts advise young people to limit their screen time and to protect their personal information.
