My grandmother Zohra lives in Tlemcen. When she was a child, life was very different. She didn't use to watch TV because her family didn't have one. She used to fetch water from the well with her sister every morning. In the evening, the family used to sit around the fire and listen to old stories. She walked three kilometres to school every day. Today, she says that life is easier, but people don't talk to each other as much as before.
